Interested in Global Health and Social Justice?

“Clean water and health care and school and food and tin roof and cement floors, all of these things should constitute a set of basics that people must have as birthrights.”
Dr. Paul Farmer, quoted in Mountains Beyond Mountains

Come join us for a nationwide event, a live videocast and conference chat on Thursday, November 12, 2009
4:30 pm to 6:00 pm., HUB 355
Sign-up to attend: http://act.pih.org/page/event/detail/jrp

Hear the author of Mountains Beyond Mountains, Tracy Kidder and Dr. David Walton discuss the work of the Partners in Health community and how people working together can make a tremendous difference in the life of an entire country. Ask them questions. Find out how you can help. Consider joining a book group.

Two new books by Pulitzer Prize-winning author Tracy Kidder are now in bookstores. An updated, deluxe edition of Mountains Beyond Mountains tells the story of Dr. Paul Farmer and Partners In Health, including recent developments in a brand new epilogue. In Strength in What Remains, Kidder brings readers along on the remarkable journey of Deo, a young man who narrowly escaped genocide in Burundi and lived homeless in New York City before founding an organization called Village Health Works (VHW) and building a health clinic for the poor in his home village.

Cosponsored by: University Honors Program, Medical Scholars Program, Medical & Health Careers Program